Our STORY

Founded in 2002, CW School of Music & Performing Arts is committed to guiding students of all ages and skill levels to meet their goals and find inspiration while doing so.

CW instructors are qualified in their discipline, providing a unique and highly personalized method of learning. We are passionate about creating an environment to nurture, educate and encourage creative individuals to achieve a deeper appreciation of their studies.

Our school approaches arts education in a non-competitive light, yet we strive for the excellence of each individual's artistic ability and potential.

Students prepare for concerts twice a year and may be asked to perform in fundraisers benefiting local charity.

We offer in-person & online classes in piano, voice, guitar, drums, ukulele, violin, viola, bass, dance, rock band, music theory, music history, musical theatre, runway, acting, Royal Conservatory of Music practical and theory exam preparation.

Because we are a Performing Arts School, we are able to offer an opportunity for students to explore multiple disciplines under one roof.

Our unique Programs offer 'multi-discipline lessons' with tuition savings. A student can choose to learn two instruments in one sitting; or study an instrument one day and dance another; or perhaps join multiple group classes from hip hop to runway to acting!

We are also very pleased to offer Music Therapy to students/clients of all ages, gender, cultural background, and conditions. Families may qualify for government funding. CW Music is a registered organization for autism funding with the Ministry of Children & Family Development.

At CW, we look forward to guiding you in your journey for creative pursuit -- spread your wings and ignite your passion!

"Music is a more potent instrument than any other for education."

MUSIC THERAPY

The Canadian Association for Music Therapy (CAMT) defines Music therapy as “the skillful use of music and musical elements by an accredited music therapist to promote, maintain, and restore mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual health.” (www.musictherapy.ca).

Music therapy is the clinical use of music to accomplish individualized goals such as reducing stress, improving mood and self-expression. It is an evidence-based therapy well-established in the health community. Music therapy experiences may include listening, singing, playing instruments, composing music, or a specialized method by an accredited Music Therapist.

ARE THERE WAYS TO COVER THE COST OF MUSIC THERAPY SESSIONS?

Music therapy is not usually covered by health care and extended health care plans. There are some exceptions, such as Worksafe BC, ICBC and funding for autism.

MTABC is part of the Task Group for Counsellor Regulation in BC. This group is lobbying the BC government for music therapists and other counselors and therapists to be regulated under the Health Professions Act. Once this is approved, it is anticipated that music therapy services will be approved under private insurance plans.

FUNDING FOR CHILDREN WITH AUTISM

The Ministry of Children and Family Development will give block funding to parents/guardians which can cover music therapy for children ages six to nineteen years. Music therapy is called an Autism Related Intervention. The family can choose to have the money placed in their account and then pay the therapist directly, or, have the therapist contact the Ministry and send them invoices. At this time, this service ends when the child reaches the age of nineteen years. For further questions, people can contact the Autism Funds Processing Unit at 1-877-777-3530.

FUNDING FOR HEAD INJURY

Some individuals with a head injury can apply for funding through ICBC if they can show pre-morbidity musical involvement.

OTHER POSSIBLE SOURCES OF FUNDING

Some special needs children may apply for funding through adoption services, and Variety Club and CKNW have been known to fund music therapy, as well. Clients and families usually complete these applications.

Please read more on our website:

<https://www.cwmusic.ca/music-therapy>

Examples Of Music Therapy Goals:

- Because music is fun, music is effective in motivating and engaging individuals with special needs to meet academic, social, and/or physical goals in fun and positive way.
- The examples of music therapy goals include, but are not limited to:
- To provide a safe environment for self-expression and choice-making
- To provide opportunities to release stress physically and emotionally through singing, drumming and the use of other instruments
- To facilitate communication
- To develop/improve social skills
- To help acquire/retain academic information
- To increase attention span
- To improve fine and gross motor skills through the use of musical instruments
- To encourage relaxation and calming
- To reduce feelings of isolation

*It's important to note that music therapy is NOT the same as musical instruction. If the main goal is to build vocal or instrumental skills, you'll need to find an instructor instead of or in addition to a music therapist.

Royal Conservatory of Music

CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

What is The RCM Certificate Program?

The Royal Conservatory Certificate Program (The Certificate Program) provides a recognized national standard and sequenced program for people studying music privately, from beginner through advanced levels.

(source: RCM Syllabus, 2016)

The RCM Certificate Program is a comprehensive and effectively sequenced program of music study and assessment, beginning with the Preparatory level(s), followed by levels 1 to 10, and concluding with the Associate Diploma of The Royal Conservatory of Music (ARCT). A Licentiate Diploma of The Royal Conservatory of Music (LRCM) is available for piano. At each level, a Certificate of Achievement can be earned by successfully completing a Royal Conservatory practical or theory examination.

At CW Music, our Group Theory class follows the RCM Certificate Program curriculum as part of our Conservatory Program. See p. 8 for information on our Conservatory Program.

Do I have to follow the RCM Stream?

For Practical (Music) Lessons, our beginner students (Levels 1-4) usually begin with Method Books (no exam).

The Piano Adventures Stream is the most preferred option for beginner piano students. Once a piano student completes Level 4 or 5 of the Piano Adventures stream, they are automatically placed into the RCM stream. See our Piano Curriculum on page and Piano Adventures & RCM Level equivalency on p for more details.

Other instruments use method books and selections by their teacher, however students are welcome to include the RCM curriculum at any time. Students can study a blend of contemporary music and material from the RCM curriculum.

When a student is ready to begin the RCM curriculum, Theory becomes a co-requisite for level certificate completion. It is therefore strongly advisable to start Theory lessons as soon as one takes up private music lessons. This is the mandatory requirement of the RCM for levels 5 and above. The RCM administer the exam, and all exam fees are payable to the RCM.

Who can earn RCM Certification?

All our students can! There are two subjects of certification: Practical & Theory.

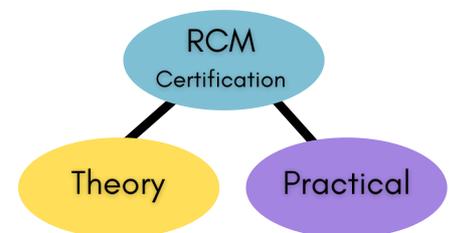

Practical: These examinations evaluate the performance of repertoire, etudes or vocalises, technical tests, aural skills, sight reading/singing.

Theory: These examinations evaluate the understanding of building blocks of music, from the basics of notation at the Elementary levels to structural and harmonic analysis at the Advanced levels. Students enrolled in our "Conservatory Program" will be able to prepare for Music Theory Certificate exams.

Practical Exams are prepared for in Private Music Lessons. Theory Exams are prepared for in our Group Theory Classes as part of our "Conservatory Program" (p. 8). Private Lesson and Group Theory Class material are independent of each other and therefore separate courses/exam recognition.

Completion of the Intermediate RCM Certificate Program's examinations can be used for high school credits.

Royal Conservatory of Music

Why should I take a Music Theory program?

Students achieve a deeper understanding and appreciation of music, allowing for independence and creativity. Students who study music theory become fluent in the language of music. The more fluent, the easier it will be to grasp musical concepts.

Theoretical levels are tied to practical (performance) levels, reinforcing concepts encountered in repertoire, technique, and musicianship studies.

Theory is Foundational

The music is not in the notes, but in the silence between.
-W.A. Mozart

Certificate Studies Curriculum MUSIC THEORY

Elementary (Preparatory–Level 4)

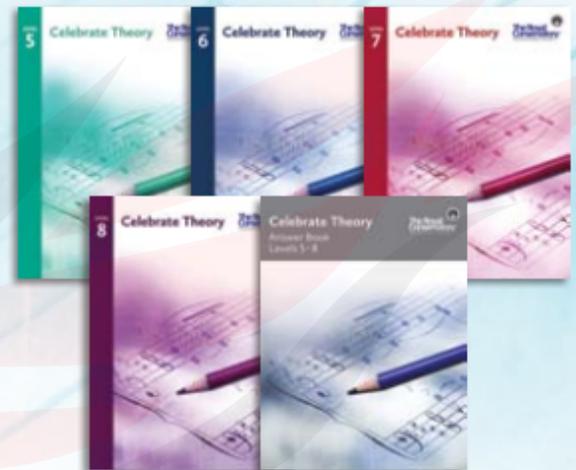

Elementary students begin their musical journey using these five progressive volumes. Introduction to music notation and fundamental concepts are presented and explored through engaging practical activities and written exercises. Selections from The Royal Conservatory repertoire and etudes books invite students to hear and play a piece while discovering how theory concepts come alive. One Answer Book is conveniently available for these levels.

Perfect for students of all instruments, these age-appropriate books introduce the building blocks of the musical language.

Intermediate (Levels 5–8)

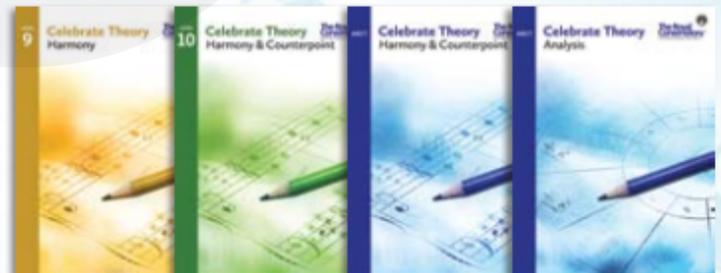

Students continue their musical journey with these intermediate volumes that reinforce theoretical concepts from previous levels and continue to expand musical literacy and build analytical skills. Each student's learning is enriched through interactivity with creative composition, analysis, and music appreciation. Integration of guided listening activities allow for a shared experience between the student and teacher, or student and parents. As with earlier volumes, Royal Conservatory repertoire and etudes are included throughout to help theory concepts come alive and build a strong foundation for well-rounded musical training. One Answer Book is conveniently available for these levels.

Advanced (Levels 9–ARCT)

Harmony & Counterpoint and Analysis

Using an interactive approach that builds on the knowledge of basic elements acquired in earlier levels of theory, these books guide students to a deeper understanding of musical vocabulary, syntax, and structure. Three clear and concise volumes that integrate harmony & counterpoint are complemented by a single volume of analysis that synthesizes and connects the study of theory directly to the practical experience.

History

Updated to reflect the requirements in the Theory Syllabus, 2016 Edition, these three volumes are essential resources for providing an introduction to and overview of the study of Western music. Through an exploration of styles, genres, and composers and their masterworks from the Middle Ages to the Modern Era, students will cultivate a lifelong appreciation and engagement with music.

CW Music PIANO CURRICULUM

It is recommended to take at least 1 or 2 years of Piano Method Book study before starting any Curriculum studies.

SCHOOL POLICY

MISSED LESSONS & CANCELLATIONS

Group classes / Ensembles

There are no make-up classes or refunds for group classes, dance classes, band rehearsals or ensemble rehearsals missed by a participant.

Private Lessons

Tuition is based on enrollment, not attendance, and reserves a weekly lesson time with a teacher during a term. Notification of inability to attend a lesson or therapy session is a courtesy to the teacher/therapist but does not excuse payment. There are no credits or refunds for student absences, nor carry-over into the next term. Therefore there is no reduction in tuition for a missed lesson.

Make-up lessons may be granted, at the teacher's discretion, at no additional charge provided that a notice of absence is given at least 48 hours (2 days) via the "Request to Reschedule Lesson" Form on our website: www.cwmusic.ca/reschedule. This is to allow sufficient time to inform your teacher, re-schedule the booking, re-schedule the practice room and schedule another student's make-up session in the time slot that will be missed by you. Text message, voice mail & email will NOT suffice for 48 hours notice – please fill up the online form and preview the teacher's availability for make-up slots.

Please understand that make-up lessons are a courtesy, not an obligation that is offered at the discretion of the teacher, schedule permitting.

Lesson Video vs. Make-up Lessons

A teacher will be able to provide a Lesson Video during the student's regular lesson time in the event that a student cannot attend their regular lesson time and the teacher is unable to accommodate a make-up. The Lesson Video can be accessed at any time by the student via the Student Portal.

Feeling ill the day of your lesson? Request to have a Lesson Online in place of In-Person during a Regularly Scheduled Time A lesson may take place on Zoom, Face Time or any other online platform in place of a regularly scheduled in-person lesson in the event that a student develops cold or flu symptoms, including but not limited to coughing, sneezing and/or runny nose, but is still well enough to have a lesson remotely. 48-hours notice is NOT required, but a student/guardian should contact a teacher via the Student Portal as soon as possible to arrange. If a student chooses to forego remote lessons in place of a regularly scheduled in-person lesson, and there is insufficient notice (less than 48 hours notice), the teacher is not obliged to make up the lesson and may choose to instead upload a Lesson Video to the Student Portal.

Instructor Absences

Members of the faculty are active performers in the field. From time to time, their performance schedules may necessitate rescheduling a lesson. If an Instructor is absent, every effort will be made to provide a substitute or make-up lesson at a time that is suitable to both the student and the Instructor. If the Instructor is unable to make up a lesson, the student will receive a refund, or credit to be applied to future lessons or classes. The same policy applies to lessons canceled due to inclement weather.

WITHDRAWALS & REFUNDS

Group Classes / Ensembles

If a student needs to withdraw from a group class up to two weeks before it has started, then any fees paid will be transferred to a school credit. No credits will be issued if a student withdraws from a group class less than two weeks before the start date. If a student's behavior is deemed consistently disruptive to a class, after consultation with the parents, the teacher will have the right to refuse entry to the class and there will be no refund. Minimum enrollment: Group classes and ensembles need to meet a minimum number of enrolled participants to run. Activities may have to be canceled if they fail to meet their minimum number. In this instance, participants will be notified at least one week in advance, and will receive a full refund.

Private Lessons

If a student must withdraw within the first month of a term, 7 days notice must be provided in writing or in email to info@cwmusic.ca. There are no refunds if a student chooses to withdraw 2 months into a term, as the time slot has been reserved for you; however, you may choose to transfer it to another person. If agreeable to the teacher, a student may choose to change teachers & discipline at any time during the term, given fair reason. If provided with written notice at least 2 weeks prior to the commencement of the first session, a client may receive a full refund.

NEUROSCIENTISTS HAVE DEMONSTRATED that learning to play an instrument or sing leads to changes in a child's brain that make it more likely they will reach their full cognitive and academic potential.

MUSIC EDUCATION CONTRIBUTES TO COGNITIVE DEVELOPMENT

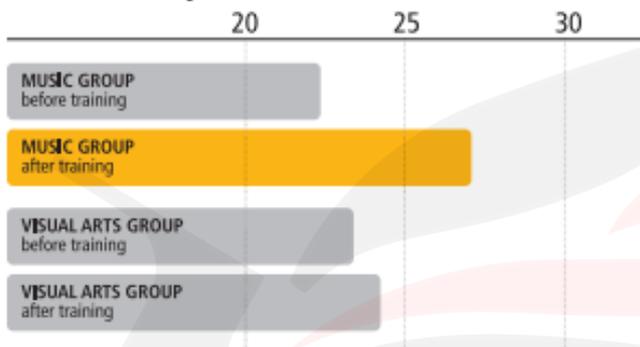

- STRONGER CONNECTIONS BETWEEN BRAIN REGIONS
- MORE GREY MATTER
- IMPROVED BRAIN STRUCTURE AND FUNCTION
- BETTER MEMORY AND ATTENTION
- HIGHER IQ

SPEECH AND READING

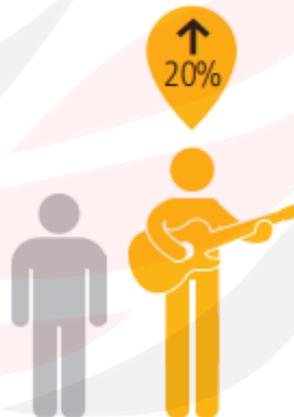

Young children taking music lessons showed dramatic improvement in their verbal intelligence after only four weeks of music training.¹

Raw Vocabulary Score

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The quality of a child's music education is linked to their academic achievement.²

Elementary school students in higher quality music education programs had 20% improvement in standardized tests of English and math.²

COGNITIVE BENEFITS OF MUSIC EDUCATION

WORKING MEMORY

Individuals who are musically trained show better working memory abilities than those who are not. Working memory allows us to remember things and is crucial to mental arithmetic and reading comprehension.⁴

CREATIVITY

Scientists found a marked difference in communication between the right and left sides of the brain, which foster creativity, in individuals with musical training than in those without.⁵

IQ

In a study conducted through the University of Toronto, researchers showed greater increases in full-scale IQ scores among children in music lessons versus children in drama lessons or no extra lessons at all.³

“The theory of relativity occurred to me by intuition, and music is the driving force behind this intuition. My parents had me study the violin from the time I was six. My new discovery is the result of musical perception.” Albert Einstein

CONCERTS

Our students are at the heart of everything we do.

Concerts

CW Performing Arts offers the opportunity for students to perform in a professional setting in front of a supportive audience of friends and family.

Concerts take place in December and June. Certificates and Special Awards are given to students at the end of each concert.

The concert stage is a place for students to gain confidence and share music, dance or other subjects that they have been studying during the Term.

Teachers will encourage performances at a CW Concert, but never force. A teacher has been in the shoes of their students and recognizes how stressful it can be to perform in front of an audience, yet the teacher also knows how important performances are in shaping their own music ability (and career) which is experience they pass on to their students. If a student opts out of performing in a concert, it would be beneficial for the student and the parent to at least be in attendance to be a part of the warmth that comes from watching performances in a welcoming environment.

Tickets

Our Program Tuition includes Concert Fees and therefore students receive 2 tickets per concert (total 4) per household. Additional tickets may be purchased subject to availability.

Students not enrolled in Programs may purchase tickets via our website as concert fees are not included in tuition.

Concert Fees & Tickets help our school cover costs to host concerts and concert productions, awards and administrative work.

Our students are our inspiration. We are so grateful to have stories of students starting lessons in their elementary years and later going on to study music in university; becoming teachers themselves; sharing music in their communities for a charitable cause; becoming musicians in their church; and so on...

For all these stories and more, we are so proud to be a part of your journey.

Students including those in our award-winning CW Music Rock Band program have performed on CTV, Vancouver Television, with Kean Cipriano Tour at Massey Theatre, with Sheryn Regis (Crystal Voice of Asia) at Aria Convention Centre, Canada Day Parade, Minion Tour (promotion of Despicable Me 2, Universal Pictures) at Playland, and internationally in the Philippines for a benefit concert to support at-risk children.

Our school recognizes the importance of giving back to our community and prepare students for opportunities to share their talent for a cause.

CW Music has raised over $20,000.00 for the BC Cancer Foundation, Tour de Cure, and has performed locally and internationally to benefit charity.
